

GKE Foundation Announcement

April, 2003

GKE FOUNDATION AND THE PEKING UNIVERSITY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TO COLLABORATE ON DISSEMINATION OF 21ST CENTURY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND EMPOWERED LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

In April of 2003, GKE Foundation announced the signing of a Letter of Intent with Peking University Allied Elementary School. The GKE Foundation and ASPU will collaborate on the dissemination of empowered learner, technology-assisted education projects and innovative, professional development in educational management, instructional pedagogy, and empowered training models.

GKE Foundation and Peking University Allied Elementary School collaborations are designed to meet the GKE Foundation's mission of disseminating and delivering empowering Information Age opportunities. The collaboration will incorporate exploration and sharing in

- a. modern, technology-assisted learning
- b. pedagogy designed to empower learners and instructors
- c. learning designed to creative process educational priorities
- d. formats to incorporation into curriculums suited to many disciplines and age group needs

The GKE Foundation and Peking University Allied Elementary School collaboration is designed upon a vision of collaborative meta-national education that deploys the unifying nature of a shared, creative learning process.

For further information contact

James Chang, President of the Board, GKE Foundation CEO and Founder, GKE

OR

Florence McGinn

Co-Director, GKE Foundation

Senior Executive Vice President, GKE

former United States Commissioner, Web-based Education Commission

United States National Tech&Learning Teacher, 1998

at Wayne, NJ office:

GKE, 155 Route 46, Wayne Interchange Plaza II

Wayne, New Jersey 07470-6831 USA

Telephone: 973 890 0010 OR 908 782 0894

Email: jchang@gke.com OR fmcginn@gke.com